The foregoing is respectfully submitted by

J. S. NEAL,	}	County Commissioners.
J. JONES,
J. M. TAYLOR.

The Commissioners take pleasure in giving to the tax payers of the County so favorable a report of the expenditure for the support of the external poor, as well as the paupers at the County Farm, which is highly creditable to the Agent, considering the present high prices of all articles of consumption. We are greatly pleased with the management at the Farm under the superintendent Mr. Shannon and his very worthy wife. Mrs. Shannon is evidently the right woman in the right place. Everything in her department is conducted in the best order and with the strictest economy, and so complete is her system that neatness prevails throughout the whole establishment. The inmates are found in their proper places, and entertain the highest respect for their worthy mistress. Upon the whole the affairs connected with the management of that unfortunate class who are now chargeable to the County has been highly satisfactory.

J. S. NEAL,

J. JONES,

J. M. TAYLOR.
